

'At a Loss for words'

Tips & tools to benefit bereaved employees & the workplace.

Free event including breakfast
Kindly sponsored by Macmillan

Presentations, discussions, workshops, take-away tools and resources to help you address this complex and sensitive issue for the benefit of both the individuals concerned and the workplace.

We welcome everyone supporting bereaved staff and colleagues to join us, as part of national 'Dying Matters Week'.

Organised by HEY NHS Hospitals Trust, Dove House Hospice, Cruse Bereavement Care

TUESDAY MAY 15TH, 2018

Mercure Grange Hotel, Willerby, HU10 6EA

Breakfast & Registration 7.30am-8.30am. 12.30pm finish

Prior registration essential (before May 1st 2018)

For any queries and to register , please contact Angie McLoughlin, Queen's Centre, Castle Hill Hospital, Hull, HU16 5JQ. angela.mcloughlin@hey.nhs.uk. Tel: 01482 461319.

'At a Loss for words'

Tips & tools to benefit bereaved employees & the workplace.

TIMETABLE:

7.30am - 8.30am	Breakfast , Registration & networking
8.30am - 8.40am	Welcome and Introductions
8.40am - 9.10am	Shifting priorities: My Journey as a bereaved employee'. Alan Searle. Alan Searle Consultancy.
9.10am - 9.40am	'The win: win of providing bereavement support in the workplace'. Speaker (employer) tbc
9.45am - 10.30am	Workshops (45 minutes) Workshop 1: 'Am I going Crazy'? Feelings of Bereavement. John Creasey, Head of Family Support, Dove House Hospice, Hull. Workshop 2: 'I'm lost for words' - Talking with Bereaved employees. Janis Hostad, Teaching & Education Coordinator, Hull and East Yorkshire Hospitals Trust.

COFFEE BREAK

10.50am - 11.35am	Workshops repeated (45 minutes) (see above)
11.40am - 12.10pm	'Rising from the Ashes: a personal account of work-life following Bereavement and Loss.' Lizzie Jordan. An award winning social entrepreneur, high profile HIV advocate and marketing consultant who is also a mother, a widow and living with HIV.
12.10pm -12.30pm	Plenary Session
12.30pm	Close

Stands and displays (in main event area) to include 'Dying Matters' materials ; 'Cruse Bereavement Care'; 'Dove House' Hospice; HEY NHS Trust Macmillan Bereavement Counselling Service; members of 'Dawn Bereavement Support and Social Group'; HEY NHS Palliative Care Team ; 'Sands' Bereavement Care; 'Compassionate Friends'(tbc).

Please address any queries and register for this event (by May 1st, 2018) to Angela McLoughlin, Queen's Centre, Castle Hill Hospital, Hull, HU16 5JQ. angela.mcloughlin@hey.nhs.uk. 01482 461319