Information about you

We collect and use your information to provide you with care and treatment. As part of your care, your information will be shared between members of the healthcare team, some of whom you may not meet. Your information may also be used to help train staff, to check the quality of our care, to manage and plan the health service and to help with research. Wherever possible we use anonymous data.

We may pass on relevant information to other health or social organisations that provide you with care. All information is treated as strictly confidential and is not given to anyone who does not need it. If you have any concerns please ask your doctor, or the person caring for you.

Please be aware that the information you provide in relation to concerns raised via PALS, including your details, will be entered onto the Hull and East Yorkshire Hospitals NHS Trust's risk management database, where it will be held for a minimum of 10 years. Access to the database is strictly controlled and limited to authorised users only.

Under the General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018 we are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of any information we hold about you. For further information visit the following page: Confidential Information about You.

If you or your carer needs information about your health and wellbeing and about your care and treatment in a different format, such as large print, braille or audio, due to disability, impairment or sensory loss, please advise a member of staff and this can be arranged.

We would like to assure you that raising a concern will not prejudice the treatment or care provided to an individual.

Patient Advice and Liaison Service (PALS)

hey we're listening

Compliments, Comments,
Concerns and Complaints

Great Staff - Great Care - Great Future

Introduction

The Trust aims to provide the best possible care for people who use our service, their families and carers. We want to improve the way we deliver our service so that you feel happy with the care and attention you are given whilst in hospital.

Sometimes things go wrong. If you tell us where things did not work so well, it will help us to learn lessons and do things differently. If we don't know we cannot put it right.

We also want to know where things have worked really well. We will learn from these experiences and try deliver the same service throughout the Trust.

Raising a concern

We would like to resolve any concerns you may have as soon as possible. It is easier to deal with concerns as they arise and therefore you may wish to speak directly to staff involved in your care.

However, if you feel unable to speak directly to the staff or you do not know who to speak to, you can contact a member of the Patient Advice and Liaison Service (PALS).

Who can raise a concern?

It is important for the Trust to maintain the confidentiality of those who use our services at all times. If you wish to raise a concern on behalf of a relative or friend we will need their consent in order to respond to concerns raised. If you raise a concern via staff at PALS, then consent can be given verbally.

PALS will:

- PALS can help you if you need some advice about your care and any questions you have about your care.
- PALS can help you to raise a concern.
- PALS is a confidential service. Unless we think someone is in danger, we will not talk to anyone without your consent.
- We can take concerns about your friend or family member but we will need their consent to speak on their behalf.
- We also take compliments. If you have received great service, please let us know.
- Give contact details for other PALS / Patient Experience Services.

How to contact us:

Telephone: 01482 623065

Email: pals@hey.nhs.uk

Write to: PALS, Castle Hill Hospital, Castle Road, Cottingham, HU16 5JQ

What if PALS are unable to resolve my concerns?

In some cases, the concerns raised are too complex to be resolved by PALS and a more detailed investigation may be required. Under such circumstances your concerns will be investigated in accordance with the NHS Complaints Regulations 2009 by our Patient Experience team.

Complaints need to be made in writing. When you are putting your complaint together, please ensure you detail what has happened, who was involved, when and where and why you are unhappy. Please bullet point any particular questions you would like answers to and/or what you would like as an outcome from raising the complaint.

Please ensure the patient's full details are included in the complaint: full name, date of birth, home address, and contact number and if known, the NHS number. If you are writing on the patient's behalf, please be aware that we require the patient's consent to investigate the complaint. Please send the complaint to:

- Complaints Team, Alderson House, Hull Royal Infirmary, Anlaby Road, Hull, HU3 2JZ
- 01482 674906
- complaints@hey.nhs.uk
