

1 in 8 babies need care on a neonatal unit

This is often unexpected. If your baby needs care on a neonatal unit, you will be asked to give them your milk.

Your milk is medicine for your baby

Your Milk is Medicine

Your milk is special and made just for your baby. It helps your baby as they grow.

Scan the QR code to view a selection of helpful leaflets

Giving Your Baby Expressed Milk

Expressed milk is milk you expressed from your breasts to give to your baby.

Scan the QR code to watch a selection of videos

Donor Human Milk & Kinship

Donor human milk is breast milk that another parent gives to a milk bank.

Scan the QR code to view the information leaflet

24hrs on a Neonatal unit

Follow four parents who had a baby in neonatal care over a 24 hour period.

Scan the QR code to watch this short animation

For more information, scan the QR codes above